

Warm Wet & Windy 2014

Peak climate change and eco festival

May 1st – May 4th

Cromford Mills, Cromford, Derbyshire

Finn Everest (Brassington Primary School)

Thursday, May 1st

QUESTION TIME at the Gothic Wharf 7pm

(HOW) CAN WE TACKLE CLIMATE CHANGE?

Hear some of the country's leading experts give their views; take the opportunity to question them; and air your own ideas. Chaired by award-winning environmental journalist, Fred Pearce.

Friday, May 2nd – Sunday, May 4th

TALKING IN TWOS evening programme at the Gothic Wharf 6pm

sponsored by Scarthin Books

Learn more about key climate change and environmental issues from some of the country's top experts and communicators:

Friday, May 2nd

PEOPLEQUAKE Fred Pearce

CLIMATE CHANGE: CAN WE PREVENT CATASTROPHE? Mayer Hillman

Saturday, May 3rd

BURNING QUESTIONS Mike Berners-Lee

CLIMATE CHANGE? WHAT CLIMATE CHANGE? Bob Ward

Sunday, May 4th

BURPS OF DEATH Mark Maslin

REVOLUTIONS THAT MADE THE EARTH Tim Lenton

Saturday, May 3rd (FREE ENTRY)

SCHOOLS AND FAMILIES DAY at the Mill

Yard and Gothic Wharf

A day of fun and learning, highlighting the climate change threat and associated 'green' issues, whilst addressing ways in which we can prepare for a future world of higher temperatures and depleted resources: stalls, activities, demonstrations, talks, music, horse-drawn canal boat rides, mask-making for kids, Arkwright Duck Trail, Meet the (18th century) Mill Manager, Transition Cafe, children's climate change poster gallery, A-level climate change revision course, schools climate change essay competition finalists.

FULL PROGRAMME at:
www.cromfordmills.org.uk

Like us on Facebook at:

<https://www.facebook.com/?sk=welcome#!/pages/Climate-Change-Festival/691418317546019>

Follow us on Twitter:

<https://twitter.com/climatefestival>

Warm Wet & Windy 2014 is supported by the Co-operative Membership, the Arkwright Society, DisasterMan Ltd and Scarthin Books. Arkwright Society is a registered charity #515526. Cromford Mills is a part of the Derwent Valley Mills World Heritage Site.

Admission for TALKING IN TWOS events and QUESTION TIME £6.50

(£5 for Arkwright Society and Co-operative members)

Tickets can be purchased from Reception/Shop at Cromford Mills or by phoning 01629 825995. Credit/debit cards, cash and cheque payments accepted.

Cheques payable to 'Arkwright Society'. Ticket purchases at the door, cash and cheque only. Refreshments available.

Authors will be signing books for purchase. PLACES STRICTLY LIMITED.